Title: "Nota exclusiva del MNRT."

Source: Compañero [newspaper]

Date: 31/3/64

Comments: Editorial written by members of MNRT. A political reflection on the total crisis surrounding the colonial-capitalist system debate in Argentina....

Attacks imperialism, heavy Marxist overtones. Complains how the media distorts MNRT and creates image of thugs.

They assert that "Tacuara does not engender violence, the Capitalist system does." References to Algeria and Indochina.

Author of the article states, "But when the violence generated by the system is countered with isolated violence from the masses it is labeled terrorism.." Quotes Evita, "only the people can save the people." Tribute is paid to those captured, but it states that we do not cry over them we will replace them. Article ends with "PERON O MUERTE!"

Title: "DENUNCIA LA POLICA VASTO MECANISMO DE LOS "TACUARA"
Source: El Siglo 5a. Ed. [newspaper]
Date: March 25, 1964

Comments: summary of arrests and searches conducted in relation to the investigation surrounding the "Policlinico Bancario." Interesting note on how Tacuara was planning to use the $--an invasion of the Malvinas/Falklands. Article comments on the the high level of mental perversion bordering on the pathological which must affect the MNRT group members.

Box 32/set a/item 7.

Title: "4214, 4161 Numeros y siglas protegen a Tacuara."
Source: Derechos Humanos [magazine]
Date: May 1964, No. 2

GRN proclaims to be an organization which fights international communism, and is a movement open to young argentines of all social backgrounds. They state, "We do not conduct persecutions. We are niether in favor nor against Jews. We only fightr against the Jews and other races in Argentina whcih try to strengthen the systems of the hammer and the sickle." GRN colaborated with the SIDE to uncover Castro-Communist camps in the inerior.

Box 32/set a/item 11.

Title: "EL NUEVO ESTILO DE LOS ANTISEMITAS LOCALES"

Source: Di Presse [newspaper, yiddish], Sp. translation
by Falik Lorner

Date: November 20, 1962.

Comments: Critique of Neo-Nazi/anti-Semitic activities and propaganda in light of recent events.

The author observes that Argentine anti-semites generally lack their own proper tradition and thus import an arsenal of European antisemitism from the WWII era. Cites lack of originality and the bricolage of European anti-semitism. Gives examples. He then ends with an interesting observation that "anti-semitism operates via the absurd." The article in summary is a cynical commentary on the academic style and misguided assumptions and conclusions of current Fascist groups in Argentina.

Date: Feb. 18, 1963.

Comments: letter which appears in a nationalist Publication. Author of the letter replies to previous letter urging student to "define themselves," and signed by the JNS (Juventud Nacional Socialista). The author which replies wants to distinguish real nationalists from the puerile groups such as MNT, GRN and JNS. He stresses that such groups are identified with fascism and racism and not Argentine National Liberation. He characterizes members of Tacuara as "sons of landowners, military men, bourgeoisie, and in some case socially de-classed who say they try to defend the interests of the working class, but really defend those of their parents, who in the meantime sell their cows to the yanquis."
